Our highly esteemed old friend D.
B. Heath, of this city, made his annual call and had his dates set ahead for another year. He and his good wife are enjoying good health in their ripe old age, the reward of a temperate and just life.

Mrs. C. T. Black, after a residence in Butler for twenty years, left Monday to make her home with her son-in-law, I. N. Misener, near Warren-burg. Before going she called and had THE TIMES sent to that address.
She is a most excellent old lady and leaves many friends in this city.

Judge John H. Sullens, of New Home township, was in to hear his old friend Senator Cockrell, on Friday and made us a pleasant call.

We were complimented by a pleasant call from Mrs. Emma Belt, of Osage, Kan., daughter of the late Wm. Walls, Mrs. Thos. Walls, of Kansas City, and Mrs. George Dudley.

E. D. Kipp, secretary and W. F.
Keyser, assistant secretary of the Missouri Bankers' Association, left on Monday for Hannibal to attend a group meeting of the association.
On Thursday they go to Chillicothe.
They will probably not be home before Saturday.

P. L. Pierpoint and P. W. Pierpoint, of the firm of Pierpoint Bros., left Monday morning for Omaha, Neb., on business. P. L.
Pierpoint has closed out their branch store he had been conducting at Ottawa, Kan., and will hereafter be located at Butler.

A prominent Republican told a friend confidentially on our streets the first of the week, to look out for the Republican papers this week, that they intended springing a political sensation, too late for the Democratic papers to answer. We warn all voters against such disreputable methods. You are safe in disbelieving anything sprung on the eve of the election.

It comes to us that Atkeson and his gang intend to "hang our hide on the back fence" in this week's Republican papers, after THE TIMES is out, and too late to answer them before the election. We never engage in the disreputable practice of springing sensations on the eve of elections, and we warn our people against all such, no matter from what source they may emanate.

We are in receipt of a letter from Lawton, Okla., enclosing one dollar, which we have placed to the credit of C. H. Morrison, as it was written on his letter head, and shows him to be in the wholesale and retail flour and feed business. The letter is written in Choctaw, Chinese, Hebrew or some other outlandish or dead language.
We know it is good, because Charley wrote it, but life is too short for us to try to figure it out.

Jay E. Owen favors us with a renewal of his subscription.

R. L. Sifers, a prominent farmer of Pleasant Gap, is a new subscriber.

GIRL WANTED—to do general house work. Good wages paid. Apply to Jacob Keiser, I. W. Keiser and wife have returned to their home at Sandyville, Iowa, after a two weeks' visit with A. R. Keiser and other relatives.

Mrs. S. C. Wheeler, of near Ballard, passed through Butler on Wednesday bound for Weston, Okla., where she expects to make her future home with her son, J. W. Hughes.

County Clerk Broadbuss desires us to say that he will keep his office open until 1 o'clock on election night to receive the returns. As the returns come in they will be tabulated.

The Rev. Bertha J. Bowers, one of the national lecturers, and W. C. T.
U. organizers, will lecture at the church at Passaic, Thursday, Nov.
6th, at 7 p. m. Come everyone, and hear a fine lecture from a talented lady.

Dr. and Mrs. Hull are in receipt of the wedding cards of Ensign Charles P. Huff, U. S. N. and Miss Viola Kleineberg, on Oct. 29th, at San Francisco. Charley was born and raised in this city and was appointed to the Naval Academy from Butler.

Robert L. Braden was a candidate for County Clerk before the last primary, and desires us to say, in answer to the repeated insinuations by the Republican papers, that defeated candidates before that primary are disgruntled, that he was never in his life more enthusiastic for the whole Democratic ticket, from top to bottom, and he appeals to his friends to vote the ticket straight. The other defeated candidates are doing the same thing.

The New Voice, the official organ of the Prohibition party, devotes a page to the new Allied People's Party with headquarters at Louisville, Ky.
We notice our old friend W. B. Bridgford is business manager. The object is to furnish the members of the new party supplies direct from headquarters. Mr. Bridgford in his announcement says he is sending out samples of whiskey, which he is offering to his brothers at greatly reduced price.
He was formerly a leading reformer in this county.

FOR SALE—A choice list of farms.

Atkeson, in the Republican Press regrets that Mr. Dickinson had been unable to get into Bates county for the reason, he says, "We would like an excuse to turn him on the spit a time or two just to even up an old score." That seems to be Atkeson's whole idea and ambition in this campaign, to "even up old scores." Instead of conducting the campaign on a high plane, he is making a slush gate out of the Republican papers to punish his political enemies. Mr.
Dickinson, in spite of that direful threat is in the county this week and we look for Atkeson to turn the vials of his wrath loose upon his offending head.

Hon. C. C. Dickinson spent Monday in Butler and in company with Judge Graves favored us with a pleasant call. Mr. Dickinson is a polished Virginia gentleman, a born orator and a learned lawyer. The Eldorado Sun aptly says of him:

As a member of the last legislature, C. C. Dickinson, the Democratic candidate for state senator, from this district made an enviable record. He not only made a reputation as an able man—as a man who possessed excellent equipment for the discharge of his duties as a legislator—but he evinced a degree of courage in combating a corrupt lobby and in standing up for the rights and interests of the people that won for him the respect and confidence of the people in every section. He was true to the people, true to every trust reposed in his hands, and when he is elected to the state senate, as he will be, his past record is a guarantee that he will be true to the people in the future.

Missouri's distinguished and able senator, Francis M. Cockrell spoke at the opera house on last Friday afternoon. He was listened to by a large audience, who seemed to appreciate the masterful review of the leading issues before the American people. We believe we are justifified in saying that no man in public life to-day is so universally loved, respected and admired by members of all parties as Frank Cockrell.
While he is an uncompromising Democrat, any constituent, no matter to what party he may belong, can always command his aid in furthering any legitimate enterprise before the departments or in congress. Senator Cockrell is enjoying exceptionally good health and says he is standing the present campaign better than any before for years. The people of Bates county are for Frank Cockrell to succeed himself so long as he lives and wills.
